

Christmas News

From the Friends of Queen Elizabeth's Grammar, Alford

Christmas Raffle

Tickets £1

Raising funds for all-weather seating and tables for the school.

A book of tickets will be coming home with pupils, extra tickets are available from Reception and can also be purchased from selected businesses in Alford. (See our Facebook page for details.)

As well as buying tickets, there are other ways you can help:

We are looking for donations for raffle and tombola prizes. If you can help with baskets suitable as hamper prizes, anything we can use in a tombola. Particularly festive fare, unwanted gifts, books, DVD's and Blu-rays, chocolate, etc. (We also have a Chocolate Tombola at the Alford Spectacular in the Manor House on 6th December.) Donations can be dropped off at the school reception or contact us direct if you have lots to donate!

(Donations by Monday 25th November please.)

Second: If you are able to help with making up hampers or running a stall at the fete, please get in touch.

Lastly: If you can't get to the school, keep a look out for tickets on sale at businesses in Alford.

A big thank you for whatever you can do to help.
