

QUEEN ELIZABETH'S GRAMMAR, ALFORD

A Selective Academy

An 11-18 Co-educational Grammar School

Number on roll: 554 (including 142 in the sixth form)

“an outstanding school”

[Ofsted]

Teacher of Business Studies Required for September 2018

Queen Elizabeth's is a co-educational selective academy with 554 pupils on roll, including 142 in the sixth form.

This is a friendly school community with high expectations. We are looking to appoint a Teacher of Business Studies from September 2018. With Business and Enterprise as our specialism, Business Studies is taught in Y7 and all students take GCSE Business Studies. Foundation Technical Level in Business Marketing, Business Studies and Economics are offered at A Level and about 70% of students follow a business-related course in the sixth form. In a subject inspection in 2010, the school was graded Outstanding in all areas.

The successful candidate will:

- Be suitably qualified to teach Business Studies and Economics to A Level
- Be passionate about the subject and take a leading role in making links with local business and embedding enterprise within the curriculum
- Be willing and able to teach a second subject if the need arose
- Enjoy working with some very able students

For an application pack and further details contact Miss A Francis (Headteacher).

Deadline for application Wednesday 31 January.

Queen Elizabeth's Grammar, Alford
Station Road, Alford, Lincolnshire, LN13 9HY

T: 01507 462403

E: vacancies@queenelizabeths.co.uk

W: <http://www.queenelizabeths.co.uk>

Applicants should note that this post is subject to enhanced DBS clearance.

